After much prayerful consideration, Mrs. Lacey Tews, has decided that after completing this school year she will not be returning to teach at Immanuel Lutheran - Silo this fall. Mrs. Tews shares, "I have loved teaching my students and sharing God's Word with them. I have learned so much from these past three years, and for that I am forever grateful." Mrs. Tews looks forward to completing this school year with many more happy memories, and is dedicated to serving God's children to the best of her ability. As we move ahead, please keep both Mrs. Tews and our school in your prayers, trusting that God will guide us all as we strive to do His will.

Anyone who puts boxes in the recycle dumpster is asked to break them down flat before putting them in the dumpster. Thanks!

The Board of Christian Education will be forming a call committee to call a teacher for the 2018-2019 school year. We are seeking input from congregation members in the following ways: volunteer to be a call committee member; submit names of teaching candidates that you would like to have on the call list. Contact Mrs. Anderson (523-3143) or Board Chairman, Paul Tveten (450-1649) to help.

The VISA scrip cards are now available again.
