The Auction Committee met this week to begin planning for a Consignment Auction Fundraiser to be held on the church grounds on August 17, 2019. We are asking for everyone’s participation in making this a successful event. There are yellow flyers in the entry way today. Please pick one up and fill one out to give us an idea on what / how many available items there will be to sell. We will need many hands to make this happen. You can drop the flyers in Jason Kreidermacher’s or Randy Hoekstra’s church box. A letter of complete information will follow next week. Thank You!

The offerings have been coming up short the last few months, since the cancellation of church back in Feb and March I have not been able to recover. I know the ag industry is suffering if you can't give any more then what you're giving. Please pray for our farmers and ag businesses that are trying to make ends meet. And please take advantage of the script program, this program is a great way to help cash flow our gym and school
