

Miss Meinert's 5th/6th classroom newsletter

October 24-28

* Thank you to everyone for helping make 90 pair of shoe pieces to send to Uganda, Africa for children who do not have shoes. If you would like to contribute $10 (the cost for sending 1 pair to Africa), please send that to Miss Meinert this week.

* Thanks to Mrs. Anderson for being a good sport in getting the 5 pies in the face as a result of 5 students selling 15 or more magazines this year.

* Volleyball this week is at Lake City on Tuesday and at Silo vs. Wykoff on Friday.

* The soles for souls shoe drive will continue until November 11.

* Thank you to those who came and shared their voices to the Lord on Sunday.

Religion: We are learning about Martin Luther this week.

Memory work: Tuesday (25th) - The Close of the Commandments on page 93

Thursday (27th) - meaning to the close on page 93

Friday (28th) - 232, 233

Monday (31st) - 252

Reading: summarizing, point of view, context clues, expository text / assessment on Thurs.

Math: 5th - reading scales / measuring time and elapsed time / multiplying by powers of 10 / fractions, decimals, percents / TEST FRIDAY

6th - measures of a circle / angles / multiplying fractions / reducing fractions by dividing / LCM / reciprocals / TEST FRIDAY

Spelling: Both grades have a review unit this week. NO TEST

Phonics: vowel digraphs English: finish nouns / TESTS next Tuesday

Science: review chapter 2 / TEST on THURSDAY

Social Studies: working with Chromebooks on slideshow presentations about an explorer

Beginning new chapter on the 13 colonies