SILO RECEIVES GRANT

On September 24th Mr. Cletus Pfeiffer was presented with a check for $12,000 by the Fischer Foundation and the Security State Bank. The grant was awarded to Silo School for the purpose of purchasing laptop computers for student use. 25 laptop computers are available for students to use in the classroom.

October 2012

of this you may also order gift cards which you can use yourself or use as gifts to others. GIFT CARDS MAY ONLY BE PURCHASED ONLINE! The order sheets will have a code which must be entered in order to credit the Silo sale. A hyperlink to the Schwan's site will be posted on our web site.

DONATIONS TO SILO

Donations have recently been made to Silo School by the Dorcas Circle (Trinket Sale) in the amount of $1,100 and by Target Corporation in the amount of $312.06. Thank you to everyone who supports Christian education by purchasing at either of these entities.

1ST QUARTER CHAPEL OFFERINGS

The chapel offerings for the first quarter of the school year are being collected in support of a seminary student. The person chosen to receive these funds is Elden Kohn, who is in his final year at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis. The students got to interact with Elden and his wife, Molly, last spring during National Lutheran Schools Week when they came to Silo to talk about their experiences teaching in our Lutheran School in Taiwan. At that time he was in his vicarage year serving at Trinity Lutheran Church in Rochester.

SCHWAN'S SALE IN OCTOBER

Silo School will conduct a repeat of the Schwan's sale from last fall. Students will get flyers to distribute on Friday, October 5. Orders will need to be returned by Wednesday, October 17. You may then pick up your orders on Saturday, October 27 in the parking lot of Valley View Paint & Body. As a part

ENROLLMENT SUMMARY

As of this writing the enrollment in kindergarten through grade eight is 90 students. 58% of those students are members of Immanuel Lutheran Church-Silo. 3% are members at other Lutheran churches, and 39% are members at non-Lutheran churches. No one in the student body professes to not have a church home.

MEET MRS. JURGENSEN

Mrs. Jennifer Jurgensen will be the substitute filling in for Mrs. Anderson while Mrs. Anderson is on maternity leave. Mrs. Jurgensen has taught in our Lutheran schools in Red Wing and Wykoff briefly before teaching for a longer period of time, intermittently full time and part time, at RCLS in Rochester. In recent years she was also a part time staff member at Trinity Lutheran Church in Rochester before moving to Plainview. We welcome Mrs. Jurgensen to our staff for a short period of time.

SPORTS REPORT

By the time you read this the regular season will have ended and the soccer team will be looking at playing in the conference tournament at Plainview. As of this writing the team is undefeated going into the last two games of the season. The conference playoffs will be held on October 2, 4, & 6 at Plainview.

We partner with parents to meet the needs of God's children by providing a Christ-centered education.
